

GORDONSTOUN

Broader experiences, broader minds.

CHEF DE PARTIE

Reports to: Catering Services Manager

Job Purpose: Gordonstoun School is renowned for its hospitality, providing a wide range of international and national dishes on a daily basis to the Gordonstoun students and staff. This role is responsible for assisting our talented Chef team to help them provide fine dining for events and visits from distinguished and often high-profile guests, alongside helping the chefs with general preparation work and traying up. The food we prepare is nutritious food for adventure experiences, whether that is a trip to the Cairngorms or sailing a yacht to the Arctic. This includes maintaining the Healthy eating plus award that the School holds and we are proud of the range of salads and fresh items that are prepared on site each day. Most importantly, it includes bringing flair, creativity and a passion for food to School every day. This would be an ideal role for someone who is looking to test out a potential career in the industry, with the added bonus of learning new skills, a continuing development of international cuisine and being part of an exciting future here at Gordonstoun.
