

GORDONSTOUN

INTERNATIONAL SUMMER SCHOOL

DESIGN & TECHNOLOGY TEACHER

Reports to: Head of Department (Design & Technology)

Role Context: GISS was founded in 1976 and is widely recognised as offering one of the world's most prestigious summer programmes. 300 boys and girls, aged 8-16 and from over 40 countries attend GISS each year.

Job Purpose: The Design & Technology teacher will work with the Head of Department (Design & Technology) to provide a fun, but safe, learning environment for children aged 8-16, allowing them to enjoy the challenges of Design & Technology, learning skills and engaging creatively with the materials and equipment you provide.

Role Details:

- With other members of the Design team teach groups of up to 24 children at a time, delivering 4 x 90-minute sessions to 10 senior groups of children (ages 11-16), and 3 x 90-minute sessions to 4 junior groups (ages 8-11) ensuring all students make progress in their learning and maintaining a purposeful, safe learning environment
- To attend inset and departmental meetings and share successful practices. To be open to feedback and adjust approach to lesson delivery as a result.
- To work with colleagues to 'set up' the department at the start of the course, to tidy and prepare the workshops at the end of each day, and to return the department to the school in a satisfactory condition at the end of Summer School.
- To undertake excursions, activities and further duties to assist in the smooth operation of the Summer School.
- To maintain good order and discipline amongst students, to check their attendance in class and always focus on safeguarding their health and safety.
- To familiarise yourself with Health & Safety policies and procedures, including risk assessments and safe methods of work specific to your department.
- To pass on any concerns you may have about any students, verbally or via the pastoral system.

This is a premium summer school which is known for its excellent pastoral care and therefore requires all staff to work flexibly and intensively to support the students. This is a fixed term, temporary contract, and whilst some days are long, it is a supportive environment and staff will be able to develop their knowledge and skills whilst enjoying a very rewarding summer experience.

Responsibilities of all members of staff:

- Comply with Gordonstoun's policies and procedures on Child Protection and Health and Safety.
- Contribute in a positive way to the ethos of the school in line with Gordonstoun's values.
- Carry out any other task as required from time to time in order to support the school.
